Art Unit: 1732

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 21-39 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Rudd et al (see 34 in Figs. 13 and 17) in view of Bakalar –854 and Dillon (col. 1, lines 9-11; col. 10, line 30) for reasons of record. The changing of the language from “within” to “inside” in claim 21 does not obviate the rejection. It is noted that literal support does not exist for the term “inside”, yet such basically means “within” and hence the two terms are considered to be equivalent with respect to the instant invention. However, inside or within would appear to encompass the same thing, namely that the second blank is “within” or “inside” the confines of the first blank. This is exactly what is shown in Rudd et al and hence the rejection is maintained.

2. Applicant's arguments filed October 20, 2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant suggests that since the second lens blank of the prior art is formed on the exterior of the first, that such would not be validly applied against the instant claims. Such is simply not persuasive. The instant claims and specification do not exclude that the second lens blank is formed on the exterior of the first lens blank, but merely that the second lens blank is formed “inside” or “within” the first lens blank. The specification does not reveal exactly what the meaning of the term “within” is, and it is respectfully submitted that such would just as clearly mean within/inside the confines of the first lens blank—ie, within/inside the (outer) perimeter of the first lens blank. Rudd shows this and instant Figures 4 and 5 show no more than this. Ie, there is no side drawing of the lens to show precisely that the second lens blank is formed within a hole or recess in the first lens blank that would accommodate the second blank. This is apparently what applicant is arguing yet the claims don't recite such nor does the instant specification conclusively support only this. Instant Figures 1-3 are inconclusive in this regard, since they show the coated finished lens and cannot therefore show the exact disposition of the second lens blank with respect to the first lens blank after the molding. Hence, it is respectfully submitted that the references have been applied in a manner consistent with how one of ordinary skill in the art would interpret the instant specification and claims and references.

3.THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
